

License Terms

Use of Ambit Group Add-ons for Dynamics 365 SCM – Finance

1. Granting of license

With the purchase of the Software Subscription for the Add-on, Ambit Group allows the customer to use the Add-on. Ambit Group grants the customer a non-exclusive and limited use of the Add-on. The Add-on is intended exclusively for the business use of the customer and is not transferable.

2. Runtime

Auf Abonnementbasis gewährte Lizenzen laufen am Ende des jeweiligen Abonnementzeitraums ab, sofern diese sich nicht automatisch verlängert.

3. Subscription Fee

Upon payment of the Subscription Fee, Customer is granted the right to use the Ambit Group Add-on on the Tenant registered for Dynamics 365 SCM - Finance. Furthermore, the customer is entitled to use new versions that are released during the subscription period.

Ambit Group reserves the right to announce the discontinuation of the Add-on with a lead time of 12 months. With the announcement of the discontinuation, the termination of the Add-on Subscription License will also take place. Ambit Group allows the customer to continue using the add-on after the termination period without warranty and without charge. The add-on will not be deleted from the customer tenant.

4. License Termination

Upon cancellation of the subscription or non-payment of the subscription fee, the customer loses the right to use the add-on. The customer is obliged to remove the add-on from the tenant. Alternatively, the customer may instruct Ambit Group to delete it. Ambit Group reserves the right to verify the regular deletion of the add-on.

5. Termination of support contract Ambit

If the customer decides to terminate the support contract with Ambit Group, two options arise for the handling of the Add-on Subscription License.

- 1) Regular continuation of the Add-on as a Subscription License regardless of the termination of the Support Agreement.

or

- 2) Termination of each individual Ambit Add-on according to the termination policy.
